

1. Experienced BI professionals,
BI Team, Ref BI001-08

Please submit a detailed CV highlighting most relevant to BI software experience.

2. Internship program ,
BI Team, Ref No BI002-08

Aim

The summer internship program aims to recruit, select and train suitable young IT students for the needs of Sirma BI Team. This team develops software solutions on the basis of Business Intelligence concept for banking and financial institutions. Our young future colleagues will get acquainted the profession of System/Business Analysts , for which they will receive initial knowledge and skills as well as possibility to apply in practice the skills learned in various BI projects.

Content

The program contains training and tasks performance. The training areas are :

- System Analysis and Design
- Oracle SQL Training
- Oracle Database Fundamentals
- Oracle Data warehouse Fundamentals
- Oracle Business Intelligence Enterprise Edition Suite
- Software project management for implementation of banking and financial software.

During the internship program , the creative thinking will be encouraged in solving various tasks. Ideas for science research work will be encouraged also in the area of Business Intelligence or application of BI solution for science and master research works.

Duration - 3 months with possibility for contract employment as System or Business Analysts

Requirements

- Suitable IT university qualification
- 4th or 5th university grade completed or master's degree study
- Communication skills and team work
- Good knowledge of English language
- Creative and science thinking

Application process

- Short CV - (1 Page)
- Interview

For more information : infosbc@sirma.bg